LRI billed Employer in 2011 for all of its services but LRI permitted the final payment to be made to it early in 2012 per telephone discussions in December 2011; therefore, the final payment on the 2011 invoices was made on 01/03/2012. This will be the "final reporting" by Employer since no activities, agreements, payments or otherwise occurred in 2012 and thereafter, except for the above 01/03/2012 final payment on 2011 invoices.

Re: Your Inquiry Letter (attached)

We received the attached letter from Mr. Larry King, Chief Division of Reports inquiring into filings that you show needing to be made by Orlando Dinner Entertainment, Inc., d/b/a Pirate's Dinner Adventure. We did a final filing January 7, 2013.

I telephoned Mr. Andrew Davis at the phone number indicated on page 2 of the attached letter, on February 20, 2015, and I left a voicemail message to call me back, but I have not received any reply phone call to date.

We would like to close out this matter by updating you with the following:

1. Your attached letter was addressed to our former legal counsel and created a delay in replying.

Please delete Jan Tansil, Esq., for any future communications:

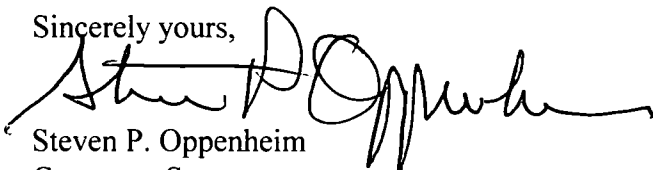

Please address future communications if any to the undersigned for quicker handling at:

Orlando Dinner Entertainment, Inc., d/b/a Pirate's Dinner Adventure
c/o Steven P. Oppenheim, Corporate Secretary

or email if preferable: spo@pirates-town.com

2. We filed the attached Form LM-10 on January 7, 2013 as advised for calendar year 2012 after we discussed a final filing with your office back then. Please note that the Form Section 12 indicated that all LRI services were completed in 2011 and only a final payment of $16,125 was made January 3, 2012; and this would be the 'final reporting' by employer.

Please process our file so that this matter is closed out as of the January 3, 2012 filing based on the above. If you need further assistance, please advise the undersigned. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely yours,

Steven P. Oppenheim
Corporate Secretary

Dear Ms. Jan Tansil:

The Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act (LMRDA) provides at Section 203, 29 U.S.C. 433, that employers and labor relations consultants must file reports with the Department of Labor concerning agreements or arrangements pursuant to which the consultant undertakes activities with an object to persuade employees concerning their rights to organize and bargain collectively, or to supply the employer with information concerning the activities of employees or a labor organization in connection with a labor dispute involving the employer. These reports are filed on forms provided by the Department's Office of Labor-Management Standards (OLMS), and are made available to the public on the OLMS website at www.dol.gov/olms.

Any person who undertakes reportable activities pursuant to such an agreement or arrangement must file the Form LM-20 (Agreement and Activities Report) within thirty (30) days after entering into the agreement or arrangement. The Form LM-20 filer must also submit an annual Form LM-21 (Receipts and Disbursements Report) for any fiscal year during which payments were received or disbursements made as a result of such an agreement or arrangement.

Federal law provides for civil enforcement of the reporting requirements, as well as criminal penalties for willful violations.

The employers who enter into these agreements or arrangements must also file a report, specifically, the Form LM-10 (Employer Report). Information provided on a Form LM-20 submitted by LRI Consulting Services Inc. indicates that Pirate Dinner Adventure, Inc. entered into such an agreement or arrangement with this consultant. Pirate Dinner Adventure, Inc. must file with OLMS a Form LM-10 report detailing such persuader or information-supplying agreement, as well as activities undertaken and any payments made, for each fiscal year in which an agreement was entered or payment was made.

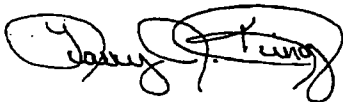

As a result, you must file any required reports within 30 days of the date of this letter. Information on reporting requirements, forms and instructions, and access to reports on file may be obtained at www.dol.gov/olms. Completed reports should be submitted to:
