Question 11.a.

In the ordinary course of business, each year the UAW retains more than 125 law firms, located in various parts of the United States. These law firms represent the UAW and its active and retired membership in a variety of legal disputes with employers and others. My wife, Ellen Moss, is a partner in one of the law firms that provides representation to the UAW. The UAW was a well-established client of the firm before my wife joined the firm. My wife joined the firm before we were married. The UAW's use of the firm is entirely in the ordinary course of business.

Question 11.b.

The UAW's expenses for legal fees for outside law firms as described above are reported on the UAW's LM-2 and ordinarily exceed $3 million annually. That figure represents the amount paid in the aggregate to all of these outside law firms. Each individual firm receives only a small portion of that amount, with the actual amount paid to each firm varying considerably from year to year depending on the extent and nature of the work performed by such firm.

Question 12.

My wife, Ellen Moss, is a partner in the firm described in Question 11. Her annual income for 2006 is set forth in Box 12a. The firm has many clients other than the UAW and only a small portion of this income is attributable to work performed by the firm on behalf of the UAW.
